Coverage Definitions

Disciplinary Defence Coverage

The Disciplinary Defence endorsement provides coverage for legal costs associated with having to respond to a complaint or appear at a disciplinary hearing with a provincial regulatory body. In the event of a complaint or investigation, members are provided with legal representation and defence protection. Examples include complaints alleging professional misconduct, incompetence, or incapacity.

Criminal Defence Cost Reimbursement

Insured members can be reimbursed for defence costs associated with a case filed under the Criminal Code related to their insured practice if the professional service was rendered in Canada and the member is found 'not guilty' of the criminal charge.

Sexual Abuse Therapy Fund

This insurance policy has a sub-limit of $20,000 for the rehabilitation and therapy expenses incurred by an individual who, during their time as a client, experienced abuse in connection with the services provided by an insured member practicing as a social worker.

Loss of Earnings

If you are asked to attend a trial, pre-trial, or appeal to assist in the defence of an insured claim, requiring time off work, you will be reimbursed for your loss of earnings up to $750/day.

Extended Reporting Period

The Professional Liability policy automatically includes 12 months of Extended Reporting Period (ERP) to respond to professional liability claims that arise after you have discontinued practice but are based on professional services rendered while you were a practicing member and prior to expiry of your last active policy. Insured members have access to up to 7 years of ERP for additional premium. Please contact BMS to learn more or secure ERP.
